

Kate Schulte

katherine.schulte@kansascity.edu 402-215-6669

EDUCATION

---

Kansas City University	August 2022-Present
College of Medicine Student	1st Quartile
University of Nebraska Medical Center	August 2019 - May 2020
Master of Science Medical Anatomy
Nebraska Wesleyan University	August 2014 - May 2018
Bachelor of Art Biology, Minor Chemistry	GPA- 3.89 High Distinction

EXPERIENCE

---

Methodist Hospital	October 2018 - August 2023
Patient Transporter
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- Transported patients throughout Methodist hospital in a safe and effective manner.</li><li>- Communicated clearly and professionally with other medical staff for the patient's benefit.</li></ul>
University of Nebraska Medical Center	May 2017 - August 2017
Undergraduate Research Assistant
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- Gathered research materials on lung tissue of Marfan syndrome patients.</li><li>- Assessed lab data and performed experiments such as RT-PCR and Western blots</li><li>- Presented research findings at the Nebraska Academy of Science.</li><li>- Collaborated with an international team of five multi-disciplinary researchers.</li></ul>

VOLUNTEER/EXTRACURRICULARS

---

KCU Movement in Medicine Club-Founder/President	April 2023-Present
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- Organized club meetings weekly for students to be outside and discuss life in medical school while incorporating exercise.</li><li>- Built a community amongst my peers and other students at Kansas City University.</li><li>- Collaborated with other clubs on campus.</li></ul>

PASS Mentor

August 2023-Present

- Provided encouragement, mentorship and advice for first year medical students.

Anatomy Academy Volunteer

August 2023-Present

- Tutored 4th -6th graders in anatomy and worked to improve their knowledge in science.
- Organized lessons plans to make learning science fun and informative.

Anesthesia Club Member

August 2022- Present